

FORT MONTGOMERY STATE HISTORIC SITE

HUDSON HIGHLANDS: Crucible of American Art

Thursday, August 23rd, 7 P.M.

The South Gate of the Hudson Highlands from Overlook Lodge, September 14, 2014 by James Lancel McElhinney.

Reviving the historic model of expeditionary travel, drawing and painting in books, later unpacked as books and prints in limited editions, James Lancel McElhinney is one of a growing number of living artists producing new works in dialogue with history, science and literature. In this talk, McElhinney's shares his experience, research, practice and insights, as an historian, visual artist and publisher.
