The Greenwich Art Society presents: James L. McElhinney

The Greenwich Art Society announces a special lecture at G.A.S. on Wednesday, October 10 at 5:30 and Pop-Up Journal Painting Workshop on Tuesday, October 16 from 10am-4pm in Northern Manhattan, both conducted by James L. McElhinney -- visual artist, author, oral historian, and publisher.

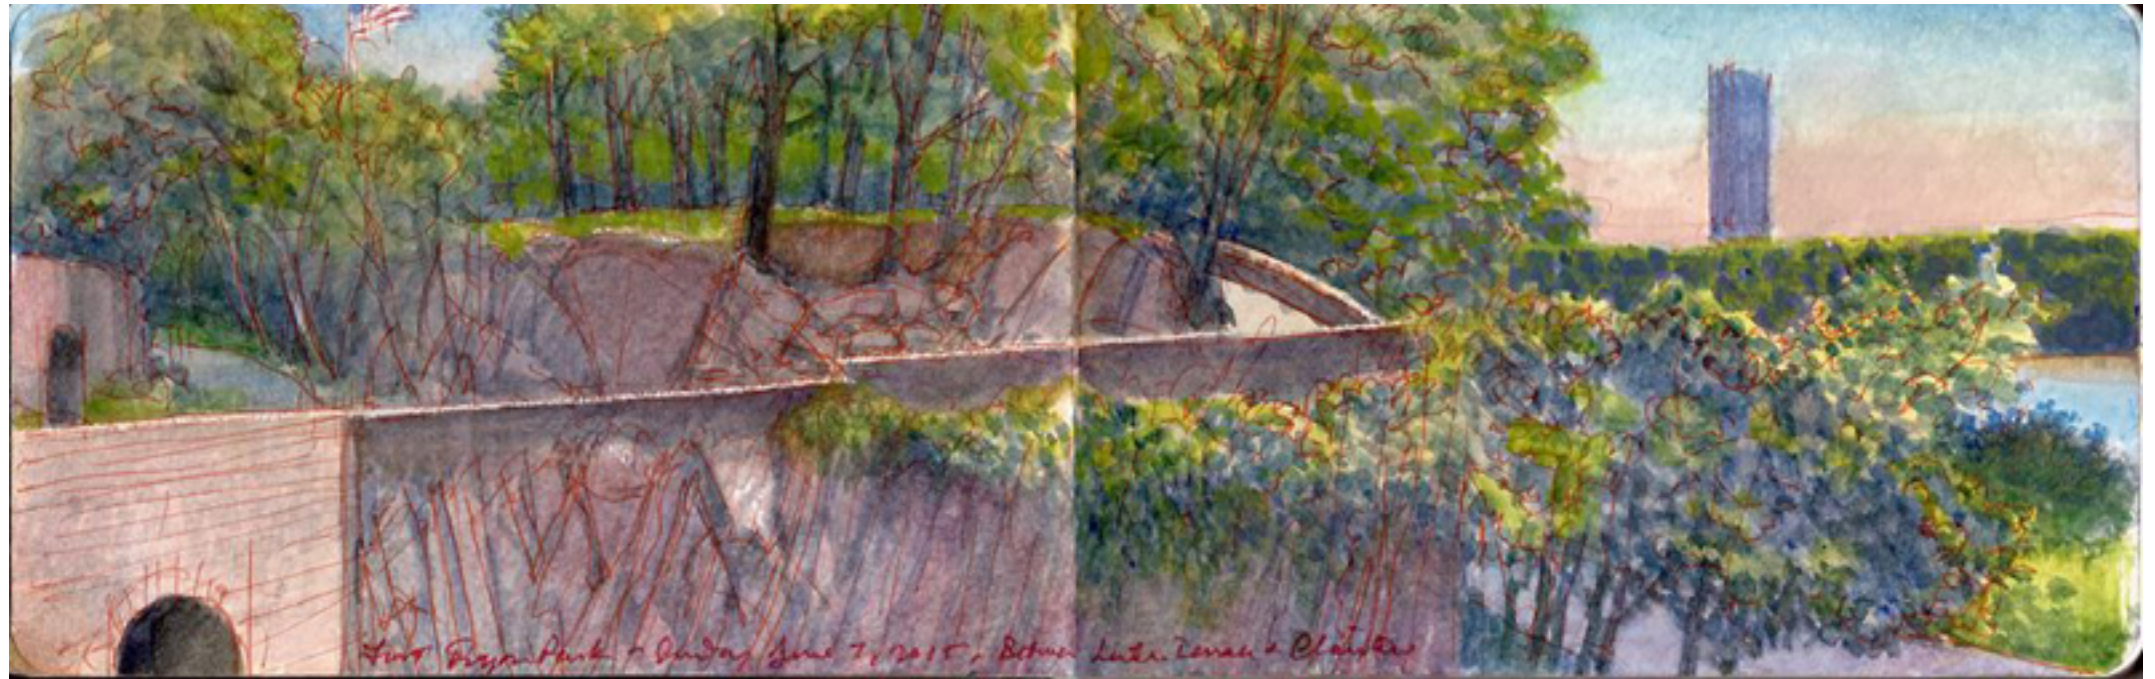

Mr. McElhinney will present:

Lecture: "Fieldbooks to Prints, Expeditionary Art" October 10 from 5:30-6:30, at the Greenwich Art Society, 2nd floor. Attendees will learn about how artists maintain a practice of exploring urban and rural landscapes through the use of fieldbooks and journals and how these images can be expanded into prints. Free for G.A.S. members / $20 for non-members.

Pop-Up, Journal Painting Workshop, "Parks and Vistas," on Tuesday, October 16 from 10am-4pm in Northern Manhattan. Participants will learn watercolor and drawing techniques as developed in journals and sketchbooks of vistas and parks along the northern Manhattan coastline. Meet at entrance of 190th St. and Fort Washington subway station, NYC. Fee - $175.

For more information, call the Greenwich Art Society at 203-629-1533 between 9:30 am and 3:30 pm, Monday through Friday, or by emailing admin@greenwichartsociety.org
